

Sky Hill Institute & The Petaluma Museum Presents

A Spring Concert celebrating the 200 year birthday of Franz Liszt
Featuring pianist Jura Margulis

April 21st 2011, 8 pm
Pre-concert talk @ 7:00 p.m.****

Pianist Jura Margulis has been internationally recognized for his compellingly communicative performances, the range of his tonal palette, and his consummate virtuosity.

Reviewers have praised the “absolute authority” of his interpretations and the sense of “controlled obsession” he transmits at the keyboard (Fono Forum). The Frankfurter Allgemeine noted that his aesthetic is both “impulsive and contemplative.” The Los Angeles Times praised his “excellent pianism,” calling him “highly musical.” The Washington Post applauded his “titanic reserves of sheer power” and his “effortless spontaneity.”

Born in St. Petersburg, Russia, he was raised in Germany, where he studied with his father, Dr. Vitaly Margulis, at the Musikhochschule in Freiburg; at the Fondazione per il Pianoforte in Cadenabbia at Lake Como, Italy; and with Leon Fleisher at the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore. Margulis is the inaugural holder of the "Emily J. McAllister Endowed Professorship in Piano" at the J.W. Fulbright College of the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville.
